Drink Some Water

I walk in the night
With millions of stars
Your eyes pull me to you
Who are you?

I walk in the day
With millions of angels
I see you in all these faces
Who are you?

One step I fade away
The next step I'm born again
You are flowing in my veins
Who are you?

Wherever I get tired
You call me from far and near
Whenever I get thirsty
You start to melt and say to me

Zaer, Zaer
Drink some water
Zaer, Zaer
Drink

A little girl in green
Gives me a glass, and I drink
You plant a seed in my heart
Who are you?

One step I fade away
The next step I'm born again
You are flowing in my veins
Who are you?

Wherever I get tired
You call me from far and near
Whenever I get thirsty

You start to melt and say to me

Zaer, Zaer
Drink some water
Zaer, Zaer
Drink

After miles and miles
Days and nights
The road slowly comes to an end
Steps are longer
Hearts beat faster
And your voice becomes closer and closer

Zaer, Zaer
Drink some water
Zaer, Zaer
Drink
